

Are you teaching your child how to be a good citizen?

The same qualities that help people live together in families can help them live in their communities— and get along with others in school. Are you helping your child develop good citizenship? Answer yes or no to the questions below to find out:

1. Do you talk with your child about school and family rules and why they're important?
2. Do you volunteer as a family on a regular basis?
3. Do you show your child that it is important to honor commitments by keeping your promises?
4. Do you model sportsmanship when you are watching sporting events and playing games?
5. Do you expect your child to take responsibility for her actions and do you hold her accountable for her choices?

How well are you doing?

More yes answers mean you're doing your best to raise a model citizen. For no answers, try those ideas to help your child get along with others.
