September 2015

The beginning of a new school year is always exciting, however, this year is different. Excitement does not begin to describe the many “firsts” we are experiencing. This September marks the first time in over forty years Alberta has a provincial government other than Progressive Conservative. Alberta has a new Minister of Education, The Honorable David Eggen, and EIPS welcomes a new Superintendent of Schools, Mr. Mark Liguori. A plan for the construction of our new replacement school and piloting of a new student progress report will also move forward this year. We are excited about piloting a new approach to communicating student learning ☺ Change is inevitable and yet, when multiple changes happen at once, it is challenging to know when one change impacts another.

Parents and community members are invited to the first student assembly. Staff will be highlighting the Leader in Me program and summarizing the “job opportunities” available within the school. Also new this year is an Alberta Treasury Branch program where students are invited to learn all about banking and saving money with an ATB Junior Branch opening up in our school library. Numeracy in action!! Meet the Staff takes place the evening of September 15th followed by School Council. This is an ideal opportunity to learn more about what makes this school a great place to learn and grow and how we can, as a community, create an even better learning environment.

As mentioned previously, we are piloting the new student progress report (i.e., communicating student learning) this year with 11 other schools. Information on the 5 point grading system is included in this newsletter. We have also sent home hard copies of the information. Finally, Saffron Internet Safety Presentation highlights how we, as parents, can help our children be safe online.

Great happens here!

Leader in Me – Parent Information

The 7 Habits is a combination of universal, timeless principles of personal and interpersonal effectiveness, such as responsibility, vision, integrity, teamwork, collaboration and renewal, which are secular in nature and common to all people and cultures. Over the course of the year, your child will be introduced to the 7 Habits and each grade level will have the opportunity to showcase their understanding of the habits in an assembly. Watch the calendar and please participate in learning all the ways we are leaders in school and at home. See the parent handbook on the website:

Counsellor Corner

Do you know how to handle your child's school anxiety?

Last year, your child could hardly wait to get to school. But this year, he doesn't want to go. At one time or another, many students show some anxiety about school.

Here are three reasons why your child may be anxious—and some ways you can help:

1. The work is harder and he/she is afraid that he won't be able to figure it out. Each year, the work will be more challenging. That's why it's important to reassure your child that he can do harder work. Researchers say that brains get stronger with use.
2. He/She is worried about friendships. It's a sad fact that last year's best friend may suddenly shift loyalties and leave your child out in the cold. You can't change that. But you can remind your child that he's a great kid who will find other friends. Encourage him to spend time doing things he really enjoys. It's the surest way for him to connect with new people.

3. He/she is afraid of getting bad grades. Sometimes children who have always earned good grades start to worry if grades slip. Help your child put grades into perspective. Are they doing their best work? Are they learning? That's what is most important. And remind them that their teacher is there to help.

Picture Day! Smile 😊

The ICON EXPERIENCE will be taking individual student photos for students in Grades K – 6 on Thursday, September 24. Students in our Tuesday and Friday Kindergarten classes will have their photos taken on Friday, September 25.

This service allows you the opportunity to have quality studio-style portraits of your children. The purchase of pictures is optional; however all students will have their picture taken.

Student Agendas

Organization extraordinaire! The Student Agenda provides numerous tips and strategies to assist your child to be organized and proactive in their studies. The student agenda also has a wealth of information about school policies and procedures. Parents are requested to “sign off” in the parent acknowledgement portion of the agenda and return to the child’s teacher. There is also a spot to sign up for volunteering at the school.

Lost and Found Items

We would love to have an empty lost and found this year. You can help us by ensuring that all clothing items and school materials are labeled with your child’s first and last name.

Library

Welcome back to books! We are ready to have a great year in our library. There are many incentives for those students who consistently return their books. "Sir Booksalot" is a Bison puppet mascot travelling to classrooms that have returned their books on time, as well as, numerous contests and fun activities over the course of the year.

Students may choose to exchange their library books or stay in both recesses and at noon for quiet reading. Classrooms visit the library once every two weeks which they may borrow for up to two weeks. After two weeks the books are overdue and must be returned to the library before students can choose another book. If students would like to search for library books at home they can access our library by using the following address:

Video Monitoring on School Buses

In accordance with the Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act (FOIP Act), Section 33 and in conjunction with the enforcement of Student Transportation bus rules, video monitoring equipment is in place on all Elk Island Public Schools' (EIPS) buses. Video/audio recordings of individuals on buses are for the safety and security of all passengers, drivers and property. Recordings may be used as evidence in a disciplinary matter.

If you have any questions about the collection, use, and disclosure of personal information, please contact EIPS'

FOIP Coordinator, 683 Wye Road, Sherwood Park, AB T8B 1N2 780.417.8204.

School Cleanliness

In order to assist our janitorial staff in keeping the school as clean as possible, we kindly request that all students change their shoes at the door. Shoes are required at all times for safety reasons and white soles are preferred. We also ask that guests in our school remove wet or dirty foot wear as well. Thank you!

Severe Allergies to Peanuts/Nuts

Food allergies are a growing concern in schools. Millions of children – children who are perfectly healthy in every other way – must watch every single bite they eat, or risk suffering a severe or even life-threatening reaction. A major health issue such as this one needs to be taken very seriously and it has always been the policy of this school to make the safety and well-being of students our top priority.

A child with a serious peanut allergy can suffer a reaction merely by touching a peanut-containing food or being exposed to peanut residue on surfaces. This reaction may be life-threatening and may require anaphylaxis medication. In view of the consequences, we are seeking the cooperation of parents in ensuring that they do not send any lunches or snacks that contain peanuts, peanut products or nuts, particularly if your children are in the same classes. (If a child with such an allergy is part of your child's class, a letter will be sent home to help inform you.) If your child has allergies to other foods, such as seafood or eggs, and you have included this information in the registration form, we will let the homeroom teacher know as soon as possible.

In addition to avoiding peanut and nut products in the school we also discourage all students from trading lunches. Please feel free to contact the office if you have any questions or concerns.

Student Medication

If your child is taking any kind of medication, we require the following information:

- name of medication and dosage; and
- purpose for the medication.

A pharmacist's print out would be handy for monitoring side effects. Medications must be left with the office and will be administered by the office staff, according to the instructions left with staff. In special instances, a student may need to carry their medication with them. We would be pleased to help arrange this with parent written consent. We have forms available in the office for these purposes that need to be filled out yearly. Also, please be sure to check the expiry dates on all medications that you leave with the school. We want to ensure the availability and efficacy of any medicine when it is needed.

Student Absences

Your child must be in school in order to succeed in school

Your child's most fundamental school-related responsibility is to get to school on time every day.

When kids miss school or arrive late unnecessarily, everyone suffers. Teachers spend time collecting makeup work and re-teaching. Meanwhile, other students—who are ready to learn—must wait.

Research shows chronic absence (missing 10% or more of school days) hurts success in school. To prevent it, families can:

- Stick to a schedule. Help your child develop habits that prepare her for school each day.
- Schedule carefully. Make medical and other appointments during non-school hours when possible. School should be a priority when planning family trips, too. If your child must be absent, work with her teacher to help your child complete makeup work.
- Seek help when needed. Many problems contribute to missing school. If your family struggles with health, transportation, work, child care or other issues, talk with school staff. Our shared goal is to help kids get to school and do their best.

Update: Kindergarten Programming Survey

As many of you are aware, Elk Island Public Schools (EIPS) has been exploring the community's interest in a full-day Kindergarten program operating on alternating days. Over the past year, some parents within Sherwood Park and Fort Saskatchewan have posed questions regarding bus-ride times and transportation fees for Kindergarten students attending half-day Kindergarten programs, which are the predominant options in these communities. These questions led to discussions within the division about current Kindergarten programming offered within EIPS.

In late 2014, the Board of Trustees directed administration to complete public consultations within Sherwood Park and Fort Saskatchewan to determine the community's interest in a full-day Kindergarten program operating on alternating days. In the spring, the division conducted a series of focus groups—comprised of both teachers and parents—discussing the advantages and disadvantages of both a half-day program and an alternating full-day Kindergarten program. A survey followed, which gathered additional feedback from teachers, parents, community members, and staff within Sherwood Park and Fort Saskatchewan.

Overall, more than two-thirds of the 1,517 survey respondents agreed EIPS should explore offering more alternating full-day Kindergarten options in their communities. Close to two-thirds of the respondents indicated the division shouldn't eliminate the half-day program and only offer alternating full-day Kindergarten.

Based on all of the responses and suggestions gathered, the Board of Trustees has asked EIPS administration to further explore offering more alternating full-day programming in Sherwood Park and Fort Saskatchewan. As such, throughout the 2015-2016 school year, EIPS will be reviewing where additional alternating full-day programming possibilities may exist. EIPS will continue to keep families updated on any new developments.

All buses are timed to arrive at the school by 8:30 a.m. Buses will then park at an angle (like they do in the afternoons) and students will be released – beginning with the High School students. Once buses have exited the parking lot, our bus monitor will then allow general traffic to enter the parking lot.

Please note that children are not to be dropped off at the school before 8:30 a.m. on any given day. Supervision will begin at this time. Children will be encouraged to enter directly into the school from their buses and will not be playing outside in the morning.

Tidbits from The LunchBox

Welcome Everyone!

The AES LunchBox ended the 2014-15 year knowing we needed to move out of our school kitchen at the end of August. For months, our board members and kitchen staff have tried to formulate a 2015-16 game plan. Finding a new location for our program has proved to be quite a challenge. We have searched under many rocks, talked to many people and very recently, we were ready to sign a contract until we ran into some last minute issues that we were not able to resolve.

We will continue our search to find a new location to house our program.

Until we find a permanent solution, we will arrange for outside restaurants to cater in weekly so we can offer some type of program to our kids. Please understand, we do not believe this is the ideal plan...but it is better than not offering a hot lunch program.

To answer a few questions that we have received...

We are currently working on updating the on-line website for this year. Registration & Ordering information will be released shortly.

It is illegal for our program to have accounts for families with children who no longer attend our school. For those of you who have forgotten your user name/password from last year, don't fret, you get to start all over again. It is easier and more efficient to delete all accounts and start fresh. Once we reset the system (sometime this week), existing user names/passwords will not work and you will need to register again. Until you receive notice to register, please do not go on the website and add students etc...or you will just have to redo it.

If you had a credit on file at the end of last year, that credit will show up on your 2015/16 account providing you use the same email and/or phone number to register.

Just a quick note...the AES LunchBox board is always looking for new members. As we wait for the new school to be built, our program has a lot of hurdles to endure over the next couple of years. Join today by emailing info@aeslunchbox.com.

Tips and Guidelines for Home-School Communication

Elk Island Public Schools (EIPS) has developed a Communication Protocol for Schools to provide a framework for communication between schools and our families. The purpose of this document is to guide, manage, and improve school-home communication by offering a standard format, structure, and sequence for regular, ongoing communication.

This document outlines how EIPS' schools use a variety of communication formats, such as face-to-face meetings, email, Synrevoice, and social media. It also provides a process for parents/guardians to use if they need to bring forward a question or concern. We encourage families to review this information so they know what to expect and what we expect of families. As communication changes, this document may also evolve. We will work to keep parents informed as any processes evolve and change.

The full EIPS Communication Protocol for Schools document is available at <http://www.eips.ca/parents>.

2015–2016 Grade 3 Student Learning Assessments Pilot

This fall Alberta Education will continue the Grade 3 Student Learning Assessment (SLA) pilot. An announcement was made recently by the Minister of Education, David Eggen, indicating that participation in the 2015 administration of the Grade 3 SLA Pilot is "optional at the school authority level" but he strongly encouraged school authorities to participate in this year's pilot. Elk Island Public Schools has carefully considered this and determined that we will proceed with the 2015 pilot as originally planned. Some of the considerations that influenced this decision included: The tremendous intrinsic value of the SLAs, which are more inclusive in their scope than PATs as an assessment tool; that the SLAs will accord teachers and parents important information early in the school year that will be of great benefit to learning and instruction, and that the Ministry acted upon detailed feedback following the 2014 pilot provided by teachers and administrators throughout the province to significantly revise the SLAs and streamline the procedures, therefore reducing the time required to administer and assess.

The pilot will include all Grade 3 students in EIPS and will take place between September 14 and November 1. The assessments will focus on numeracy, literacy, and critical thinking, be digitally based, and offer an opportunity for students to show their learning in ways not possible with paper-based tests. The goal is to provide timely information to parents and teachers, help enhance classroom instruction, and ensure any student learning needs are identified.

Further information regarding SLAs excerpted from the Alberta Education Website is below.

What are Student Learning Assessments (SLAs)?

The Student Learning Assessments (SLAs) are digitally-based beginning of the year "check in" provincial assessment tools that Alberta is developing to enable both parents and teachers to identify student strengths and areas of growth at the start of the school year. The SLA3 is a new, digitally-based provincial assessment focused on "literacy and numeracy", which are defined as follows:

- Literacy is the ability, confidence and willingness to engage with language to acquire, construct and communicate meaning in all aspects of daily living.
- Numeracy is the ability, confidence and willingness to engage with quantitative or spatial information to make informed decisions in all aspects of daily living.

What are the purposes of SLAs?

The SLAs have three main purposes

- To improve student learning (primary purpose).
- To enhance instruction for students.
- To assure Albertans our education system is meeting the needs of students and achieves the outcomes of the Ministerial Order on Student Learning.

With these purposes in mind, the SLAs have been developed primarily as a tool for teachers and parents to help inform and support student learning.

Provincial assessment programs, including SLAs, are meant to complement, not replace, day-to-day teacher observations and classroom assessment. They are sources of information that must be interpreted, used, and communicated within the context of regular and continuous assessment by classroom teachers.

Why the change to SLAs?

SLAs are designed to be a start of the school year "check in" or formative assessment tool. Knowing early in the school year, rather than at the end, what students know and are able to do and areas for growth will serve as useful reference and enable collaboration between parents and teachers to help students learn and grow during the year. Also, the SLAs are flexible and can be completed over a number of days rather than on a specific day and time, thereby giving teachers greater flexibility and students the opportunity to take the assessment “when ready”. Also, as provincial programs of study continue to evolve to place a greater emphasis on literacy and numeracy development in all subject areas, as well as competencies (an inter-related set of knowledge, skills and attitudes), provincial standardized tests must also evolve.

What is the structure of the SLA3?

The four components of the SLA3 are:

- digital interactive literacy questions (45 questions)
- literacy performance task (4 activities)
- digital interactive numeracy questions (44 questions)
- numeracy performance task (2 activities).

The SLA3 is available in English and in French. The French versions are designed to meet the needs of Francophone and French Immersion students.

Further information on the 2015–2016 Grade 3 SLA pilot, visit www.education.alberta.ca/sla.

Promote effective study habits for a successful school year

Helping your child strengthen his/her homework and study skills is one of the most important ways you can help him do better in school. And the start of a new school year is the perfect time to get started.

Here’s how:

- Choose a regular time and place for homework. It should be a quiet, comfortable location free from distractions. Stock it with necessities such as paper, pencils and a dictionary.
- Allow for some free time first. Many kids need to blow off steam after school by exercising or talking about their days. Many also head straight for a snack. Keep healthy options available that will energize your child for work and play.
- Postpone screen time. Watching TV and playing video games are privileges that often take time away from priorities, including reading, homework and chores. Save all screen time for after homework and studying.
- Encourage organization. Productive studying starts with a to-do list. Older elementary school students should make one each day.
- Pay attention. Homework time is a chance for you to learn about your child. Do they excel at reading? Have trouble with spelling? Struggle with multiplication?
- Be supportive. Don’t ever do your child’s homework for him/her. But do stay nearby to supervise. It’s okay to answer questions and guide your child through problems. However, if he/she needs too much help, talk with his teacher.
